

January 2023

Dear parents and carers,

We are excited to be able to offer your child a place in our new project funded by the Ministry of Justice, that is focused on mentoring, team-building and physical/mental wellbeing.

The programme is delivered by Restorative Justice for All (RJ4All). We are a community-based organisation based in SE16 working alongside Bacon's College, providing free and holistic services that aim to help us deliver our long-term vision for a just London. We use restorative justice, education and sport to empower our local community. Our Rotherhithe Community centre is based at: 30 Plough Way, SE16 2LJ. The programme's key contacts are Dave Walker (07932762001) and Mel Bruce (07940985299); additionally, RJ4All's centre team can be reached on: 07708758600.

Activities within the programme will include:

- Personal development
- Confidence building
- Team building
- Conflict resolution tips with insight to challenge discipline
- Increased resilience
- A sense of belonging
- The use of a gym with an instructor
- The use of a boxing club with a trainer
- Sailing
- Exploring personal, academic and career opportunities
- And most importantly, to feel in charge of their own mindset to realise their potential

Commitment

- We will be working with the students for a time slot on a weekly basis.
- Additionally, a multiple-day-long Training Event will be launched during the next half term (Monday 13th February - Friday 17th inclusive; from 10am - 4pm; snacks and lunch provided).
- The students will be able to opt out of the programme at any time, however their sustained engagement will increase the programme benefit and enjoyment.

Please complete this consent form for your child to take part in this opportunity. We are hoping to launch it as soon as possible; slots will be given on a first come, first serve basis and we are looking forward to getting started!

If you would like to discuss any elements of the project, please contact Mel or Dave using the above numbers.

Best wishes,

Mel Bruce
