Photo consent

With the consent of the young person and their parent/s or guardians we would like to we would like to include images in publicity of young people who are involved in the Serious Youth Violence - Education & Reconciliation School Arts and Community Learning Project 2023 in Southwark. We have a duty of care to reduce safeguarding risks by ensuring that children remain unnamed in publications.

The use includes:

- Bacon's College and Christ's School's social media and newsletters / Diocesan newspaper / Glazier's newspaper / Board of Education social media / Diocesan social media

Images will be stored on a Google Drive only accessible by a limited number of adults who are involved in the project.

For completion by parent or guardian and child:

I consent to images of the child named being used and stored, solely for the purposes specified above. I understand that the identity of my child will be protected in all publication of images.
