They are expected to attend school every day and they will have 'drop downs' i.e. intensive booster sessions before each exam. They may be sent home early on a few occasions – if so, you will be notified. Any non-attendance may affect their place at the prom.

- Late finishing exams – due to their length, some afternoon exams may finish after 3.30pm particularly Sixth form exams. Please avoid calling your child so that there is no risk of their phone ringing during an exam. Text messages are more advisable. They can call you when the exam is over.
- Bring revision materials – Students should bring revision materials throughout the exam season – guides/books/notes/flash cards can be used when they are not writing an exam. Please ensure they are keeping up with their homework which is part of their revision.

Absences and Punctuality - These are real exams and none of them can be re-arranged

Only Maths and English Language can be-sat next year at college/sixth form. If students miss an exam, they will get 0 marks for it and the exam board will calculate their grades based on their other exams. Headaches, tummy aches and other minor ailments are not good enough reasons to miss exams. If students do not attend on time, they may not be allowed to sit the exam. Absences for hospitalisation or contagious illnesses e.g. norovirus are permitted, but your child may not necessarily be given a lot of extra marks if they don't write the exam. GP and Dentist appointments must be rearranged. If you think your child is going to absent for any reason or something arises on the day, please contact me and Ms Hickman straight away via email or call the school to discuss arrangements.

6. Results days August 2025

A-Level Results Day – Thursday 14th August, 8.00am-11.00am

GCSE Results day – Thursday 21st August, 9am-12.00pm

Only the student or direct relatives can collect results (not friends). If you are not going to be here, please email h.tasmin@baconcollege.co.uk. Results will be emailed to students' Bacon's school account.

7. Saturday School, holiday classes, morning and after school interventions

These will continue throughout the exam period although there may be slight adjustments to the morning and afterschool interventions. Please ensure your child attends their extra classes.

Thank you in advance for your support. If you have any exam related questions, please email me a.anum@baconcollege.co.uk.

Kind regards
