The prom is a reward for students who have consistently met our expectations. At the end of May, the senior leadership team will review students' conduct during the academic year (although greater emphasis will be placed on the period between February half term and May) focusing on the criteria below and if anyone has failed to meet our expectations, they will not be allowed to attend the prom. We will consider:

- Number of isolation referrals particularly for 24-hours
- Punctuality and attendance to lessons and school (should be above 90% ideally)
- External suspensions
- Number of detentions and attendance to detentions
- Truancy from school or lessons
- General conduct, attitude and behaviour around school and towards staff

The College maintains the right to refund any monies paid and refuse entry. Millwall will provide security for the evening and will refuse entry to any students who have not been invited.

Yearbooks and Results day

Students will receive their Year books on Results day which this year takes place on Thursday 22nd August 2024. More details about this will be sent nearer to time.

Yours Sincerely
